

Fred & Debby's GOAL is to see fruitful workers in the Kingdom of God who will walk in the Spirit and in the Word, believing that God can do great things today, and free of legalism that cripples the work of God.

They met in Bible School, married in 1978, and were pastors for fifteen years in rural Pennsylvania. For the past fifteen years Fred & Debby have traveled extensively throughout West Africa and the Philippines teaching and preaching in Bible Schools, churches, conferences and crusades.

Fred is a gifted teacher and has set up hundreds of Bible Schools overseas, donating the video teachings that he has put together in both English and French. Debby is a sought after crusade, conference and church speaker and a gifted author. Her books include, "Promise of Suddenly", "Keepers of Salt" and the soon to be released, "Because He Said So".

Fred and Debby have a married son and a teenage daughter.
